Dear Cathy,

NECA presents the Recognition of Achievement in Safety Excellence annually to our member contractors who have achieved exemplary safety performance during the previous (2017) calendar year. In 2018, there was increased participation and the metrics more competitive – an indication that NECA contractors are continually raising the bar on safety performance.

NECA Recognition of Achievement in Safety Excellence recipients are selected for achieving a superior safety performance score in their respective categories. This cumulative score is based on point system for having injury and illness rates and an insurance industries Experience Modification Rate (EMR) which exceed industry standards. In qualifying for this year's NECA Recognition of Achievement in Safety Excellence, you have shown your company met this high standard in your category during 2017.

On behalf of NECA, I would like to commend O'Bryant Electric, Inc. for achieving the 2018 Recognition of Achievement in Safety Excellence. Your commitment to safety raises your company's standards and safety, and we congratulate you on this achievement. This reflects your dedication to following the industry's highest safety standards.

Sincerely,
